

Republic Day, 26th January 2021 Celebration at NSTI(W) Indore

India celebrates Republic Day on January 26 annually with a lot of pride and fervor. It is a day that is important to every Indian citizen. It marks the day when India became truly independent and embraced democracy. In other words, it celebrates the day on which our constitution came into effect. On 26 January 1950. Prior to this, India was governed by the Government of India act 1935. Republic day came into force on January 26, 1950. Dr. Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar was the chairman of the Constitution drafting committee that wrote the constitution of India. Dr Rajendra Prasad was the first president of India and also the first president to unfurl the Indian tricolour at the republic day parade at Rajpath on January 26 1950. This was the same year when the president House was renamed as Rashtrapati Bhavan. India is celebrating its 72nd Republic day. The Indian flag comprises the three horizontal colour bands in equal proportion and commonly referred to as the Tricolour. The Indian flag was designed by Pingali Venkayya and was first presented at the Constituent Assembly on July 22, 1947.
